• practising our handwriting.
• Working with Mrs Phonological (our puppet) who helps us with rhyming words, syllables and listening to sounds.
• learning about the different phenomena to help us describe things.
• reading during morning reading time
• sorting, patterning, working with shapes and learning about numbers in maths.